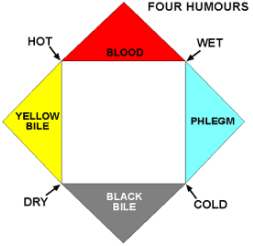
Medieval Medicine c. 1000AD – 1500AD



Hippocrates is believed throughout the medieval period

1350: John Arderne publishes The Practice of Surgery

1095 – 1291: The Crusades

1377 – 1473: Hundred Years War

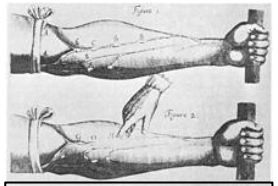
1000 1100 1200 1300 1400 1500

Galen in believed during medieval England

1249: St Giles Hospital is founded. What were hospitals like?

War	Superstition and Religion	Chance	Government	Communication	The Economy	Science and Technology	Ideas	Individual Genius

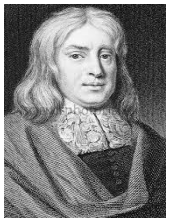
Renaissance: 1500 - 1800



1628: William Harvey

1536: Ambroise Pare

1590: The First microscope

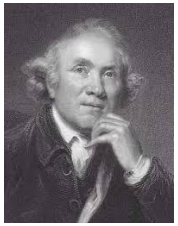


Sydenham

Jenner

1500 1600 1700 1800

Vesalius: Fabric of the Human body

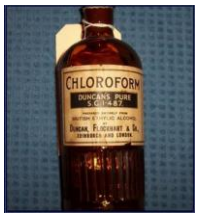


John Hunter

War	Superstition and Religion	Chance	Government	Communication	The Economy	Science and Technology	Ideas	Individual Genius

Industrial: 1800 – 1900 (19th Century)

1848: Public Health Act



Simpson

1867: Lister uses antiseptic in surgery

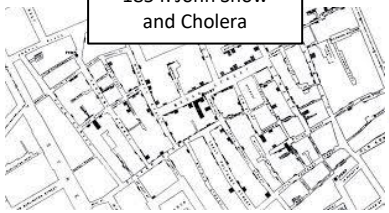
1853- 1856: Crimean War

1800 — 1850 — 1900

1858: The Great Stink

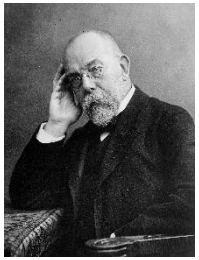
1875: Public Health Act

1854: John Snow and Cholera



1861:

V



War	Superstition and Religion	Chance	Government	Communication	The Economy	Science and Technology	Ideas	Individual Genius

Modern: 1000 – Present (20th Century)

1911: National Insurance Act

1948: NHS

1906: School Meals Introduced

1914-1918: WWI

1939-1945: WWII

1900

1950

2000

1908: Old Age Pensions Act

1942: Beveridge Report

1909: Salvarsan 606

Penicillin

1967: First Heart Transplant

AIDS Epidemic

War	Superstition and Religion	Chance	Government	Communication	The Economy	Science and Technology	Ideas	Individual Genius