Our Values

The Coleshill School is an ethically inclusive school that has children at the heart of all that we do. We have high expectations of our students and believe that it is our responsibility to work with every young person in our care to ensure they are challenged, supported and nurtured in a way that enables them to be prepared for the next stage of their development and are ready for their next steps. We embrace a trauma informed approach, and all of our staff understand it's importance and are developing their practice in this area. This policy outlines how the expectations we have of our students are aligned with our school values of Work Hard, Be Kind, Take Responsibility.

At The Coleshill School we aim to ensure that students take responsibility for their behaviours and the associated consequences and rewards. Through clear and robust systems, a consistent and proactive approach is taken to ensure all students can be successful. Our values of Work Hard, Be Kind and Take Responsibility are fundamental and underpin our restorative and relational approach, where we encourage students to repair relationships, take responsibility and make things right when needed. Our staff use an emotion coaching approach to deescalate (where possible), support and regulate students, encouraging them to meet our expectations as a school.

Work Hard: At The Coleshill School, we promote a strong work ethic where students are ambitious and resilient from day one. This value means giving your best effort in every aspect of your academic journey. Approaching each lesson with curiosity and determination, completing work to the best of your ability, and persevering through challenges. We encourage students to set goals, stay organised, and take pride in their accomplishments.

Be Kind: Kindness is an important value and lies at the heart of our school community. It means treating every person with respect, empathy, and understanding. In our daily interactions, students are encouraged to be inclusive, support one another, and stand up against bullying or discrimination. We believe that being polite, a kind gesture, a friendly smile, or lending a helping hand can make a significant difference in someone's day. At The Coleshill School, we nurture an environment where kindness is not only valued but is also celebrated, creating a positive and inclusive atmosphere where every student feels safe, supported, and valued.

Take Responsibility: Taking responsibility means being accountable for your actions and choices. We empower our students to make responsible decisions both inside and outside the classroom. This includes owning up to mistakes and learning from them, as well as being proactive in seeking solutions to challenges. We encourage students to take pride in their school and community - fostering a sense of belonging and a commitment to making positive contributions.

Class Teachers

- Teachers should follow the school's behaviour routines. Class teachers should be on their doorframes at the start of lessons to meet and greet students, monitor behaviour and conduct in the corridors, and encourage students to be punctual. The 'Do it Now' should be available to encourage an orderly and purposeful start. The scaffolds and support in this policy can be used where appropriate in order to ensure consistency across, praise, rewards and consequences. Class teachers should attend restorative interventions where needed, including engaging in a restorative discussion with students they have placed in detention. Class teachers should always act in the best interests of the student which may include being proactive in both positive and negative communication home. When on duty or moving around school site, class teacher should be wearing their Hi-vis vest for optimal presence and visibility. Class teachers will use an emotion coaching approach with students where appropriate.

Middle Leaders

- Middle Leaders should track students with emerging poor behaviour or multiple counts of poor and disruptive behaviour that has impacted the learning of others.
- Middle leaders should intervene where there are issues before escalating to the phase team. This could be by arranging a restorative conversation between a class teacher and student, placing a student on subject report, and monitoring the behaviour data weekly. They should also support class teachers in ensuring they are meeting the teaching and learning expectations of the school and are striking a good balance between the awarding of positive and negative points.
- When on duty or moving around school site, middle leaders should be wearing their Hi-vis vest for optimal presence and visibility.
- Middle leaders will use an emotion coaching approach with students where appropriate.

Form Tutors

- Form tutors are the first point of contact for staff and parents for a student issue. Phase teams, tutors and subject teachers should communicate clearly and consistently when behavioural issues arise to apply restorative practice at the earliest possible stage to promote positive relationships, resolutions and taking responsibility. When a student hits the required behavioural threshold, a student may be placed on report to a form tutor, the form tutor will contact parents and have regular conversations
- When on duty, moving around school site, or at morning line up, form tutors should be wearing their Hi-vis vest for optimal presence and visibility.
- Form tutors will be on time for morning line up at 8:40am, wearing their Hi-vis vest and will perform uniform and equipment checks as well as reiterating any messages from the phase team.
- Form tutors are responsible for their tutor group during line up and should move up and down the line ensuring that their tutor group is in alphabetical order, is silent when asked and is behaving appropriately.
- Form tutor will use an emotion coaching approach with students where appropriate.

Pastoral Team

- Pastoral teams will be highly visible across the school
- Pastoral teams will monitor, support and intervene with their designated year groups and provide high quality support to class teachers.
- Will ensure school standards and expectations are adhered to across the school.
- Pastoral Teams will take responsibility for all students meeting school expectations

- Will be present and visible at lesson changeover times to ensure all students arrive to lessons on time
- Will provide timely support to staff during on call duty periods

- To consistently promote a culture of success and achievement through positive reinforcement and praise.
- Will model trauma informed approaches including restorative practice and emotion coaching where appropriate and encourage staff use these strategies

Consequence System

We endeavour to use a restorative, trauma informed approach with students in order to facilitate positive relationships with members of staff, allowing students to reflect on their behaviour and ultimately take responsibility for their behaviour and learn how to move forward from incidents that require a consequence. We expect students to 'own' their behaviour and take responsibility when negative behaviours are demonstrated. We also expect our students to work hard to improve their behaviour in line with the school values and tiers of intervention.

The below consequence system is not exhaustive as there are often contextual issues that make behaviour difficult to identify and categorise. The below list is advisory only.

Detentions

When a student's behaviour reaches a level that warrants a detention being issued the following may happen.

Class Teacher detentions:

A teacher can issue a class teacher detention to take place in break or lunch time in the classroom if they feel that it does not warrant a lunch time detention but the behaviour displayed requires a teacher consequence.

Lunch time detentions:

A lunch time detention takes place from 12:25 to 12:55. Students will be escorted to the detention room by their period 3 class teacher. Students have enough time at the end of the detention to go to the toilet or get food. If a student fails or refuses their lunch detention then they must resit the detention the following day and they will also be placed in an after school detention on the Friday of that week for one hour. If a student is in a lunchtime detention a text message is sent the day before to inform parents to enable conversations and reminders to take place at home.

Friday After school detention:

This takes place immediately after school on a Friday for one hour. Students are placed in this detention as part of the escalation process from a failed or refused lunchtime detention. In some cases it may be necessary to place a student in this detention without a failed or refused lunch time detention. If a student is placed in a Friday after school detention then a text message will go home the day before.

Tiers of intervention

All consequences carry negative points which are logged on Bromcom. Parents can see these behaviour points and behavioural incidents on the My Child at School (MCAS) app. Behaviour points are monitored every week by the pastoral team for each year group and from this it is determined which students are placed in which tiers on the tiers of intervention pathway.

It is the schools right to escalate through the tiers of intervention based on any significant behavioural incident and should therefore be seen as an advisory guide that can change depending on context.

Universal	Tier One	Tier Two	Tier Three	Tier Four	Tier Five
Infrequent dysregulation	Frequent dysregulation	Repeated dysregulation or in multiple subjects	Persistent dysregulation	Serious dysregulation	Significant dysregulation

*Interventions and support are not exclusive to each tier and are to be used as appropriate and at the discretion of the school.

*Not all interventions will be appropriate for all students and the above list is not exhaustive.

*Success of interventions and movement through the tiers is based on report success and/or review of student support plan at each tier

Student Support Plans

A student support plan will be produced for all students from Tier 1 – 5 and reviewed and updated as students progress through tiers or no longer require the intervention due to behavioural improvements. The plan will outline the actions, interventions and approaches to be undertaken to try and facilitate improvement in student behaviour. Student support plans will be reviewed fortnightly and be completed in conjunction with students, parents/carers and key staff, using a restorative and positive approach. A student can be escalated to the next tier at the discretion of the school based on incidents that occur or when there is no sign of improving behaviour on a student's current tier after 2 or more fortnightly cycles, to be decided by the relevant pastoral team.

Responding to misbehaviour from students with SEND

For The Coleshill School's SEND Accessibility Plan click here:

The school recognises that students' behaviour may be impacted by a Special Educational Need or Disability (SEND). When incidents of misbehaviour arise, we will consider them in relation to a student's SEND, although we recognise that not every incident of misbehaviour will be connected to their SEND. Decisions on whether a student's SEND had an impact on an incident of misbehaviour will be made on a case-by-case basis. When dealing with misbehaviour from students with SEND, especially where their SEND affects their behaviour, we will balance their legal duties when making decisions about enforcing the Behaviour Policy.

The legal duties include:

- Taking reasonable steps to avoid causing any substantial disadvantage to a disabled student caused by the school's policies or practices (Equality Act 2010)
- Using our best endeavours to meet the needs of students with SEND (Children and Families Act 2014)
- If a student has an Education, Health and Care (EHC) Plan, the provisions set out in that plan must be secured and the school will co-operate with the local authority and other bodies.

As part of meeting these duties, we will anticipate, as far as possible, all likely triggers of misbehaviour, and put in place support to prevent these from occurring. Any preventative measures will take into account the specific circumstances and requirements of the student concerned and may include approaches such as:

- Short, planned movement breaks for a student with SEND who finds it difficult to sit still for long.
- Adjusting seating plans to allow a student with visual or hearing impairment to sit in sight of the teacher.
- Adjusting uniform requirements for a student with sensory issues or who has severe eczema.
- Training for staff in understanding conditions such as autism and ADHD
- Use of reconnection spaces (sensory zones or nurture rooms) where students can regulate their emotions during a moment of sensory overload.

Adapting sanctions for students with SEND When considering a behavioural sanction for a student with SEND, we will consider:

- Whether the student was unable to understand the rule or instruction
- Whether the student was unable to act differently at the time as a result of their SEND
- Whether the student is likely to behave aggressively due to their particular SEND

Home – School Agreement Relationships and Behaviour Policy September 2024

The school will then assess if it is appropriate to use a sanction and if so, whether any reasonable adjustments need to be made to the consequence.

Considering whether a student displaying challenging behaviour may have unidentified SEND

The school's special educational needs co-ordinator (SENCO) may evaluate a student who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met. Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs. When acute needs are identified in a student, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. We will work with parents to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

Students with an Education, Health and Care (EHC) Plan

The provisions set out in the EHC Plan must be secured and we will co-operate with the Local Authority and other bodies. If we have a concern about the behaviour of a student with an EHC Plan, we will contact the Local Authority to discuss the issue. If appropriate, the school may request an emergency review of the EHC Plan.

Safeguarding

We recognise that changes in behaviour may be an indicator of a safeguarding concern. We will consider whether a student's misbehaviour may be linked to them suffering, or being likely to suffer, significant harm. Where this may be the case, we will follow our child protection and safeguarding policy, and consider whether pastoral support, an early help intervention or a referral to children's social care is appropriate.

Communication

With staff:

Daily pastoral and SEND notes are shared with staff to inform of parental communication, meetings, successes, consequence and further information to support staff with their planning and delivery for the next day.

Key pastoral information is shared weekly with staff during briefings and CPD sessions.

With Students:

Pastoral teams update students weekly, where necessary, to ensure successes are celebrated and areas of concern are addressed. This may be done individually, in groups or in weekly assemblies. Student achievements are regularly celebrated in assemblies and themes for assemblies are adapted in relation to the year group and emerging concerns or areas of focus. We regularly gather student feedback through student leadership groups and the 'Big Ask' which takes place during tutor time.

With parents/carers:

Parents/carers are informed of behavioural processes and expectations during the transition process when students are joining the school. Parents/carers are regularly communicated with via text messages, emails and through My Child at School (MCAS) where parents/carers can see a student's timetable, positive points, negative points and attendance information.

We regularly gather parent/carer feedback at parent information evenings, parents evenings and through questionnaires.

On Call

On Call is used when:

- When a student receives a 4th warning in lesson and a student needs to be taken to a receiving teacher room
- When a student that has been marked present earlier in the day but has not arrived to lesson and there is no known reason for their absence at lesson
- A student requires medical assistance during a lesson
- A DSL is required at a lesson
- A student with a toilet pass requires the toilet during lesson time

On call is also used in emergency situations where staff require support, to support with students truanting and where emergency first aid is required.

On call patrol the school during each period of the day and will stop any students that are not in lessons to ensure they are not truanting and that they are returned to the correct place. There should be no students out lessons for any reason other than with an on-call member of staff.

Reflection Room

When a student's behaviour is of a significant level or in response to a single serious incident, a student may be internally suspended and placed in the reflection room for a fixed period of time. The time is based on the context and the success of the student in reflecting and taking responsibility for their behaviour.

A student may also be placed in the reflection room whilst an incident is investigated.

A student that is persistently truanting or being removed from lessons may also be placed in the reflection room.

The expectations in the room must be met for a student to be deemed as completing a successful period. Students misbehaving, refusing or walking out of reflection may be suspended.

Senior leadership decide if a student is to be placed in the reflection room and this will be agreed with the Assistant Headteacher for Behaviour, Deputy Headteacher or Head of School.

Whilst in reflection students will be set work on Showbie and will therefore require their ipad to be fully charged and with them on the day of their reflection.

Whilst in reflection, a student will receive mentoring from a member of the pastoral team which will consist of a reflective exercise, restorative conversation and, where necessary, targeted intervention related to the reason for being placed in the reflection room.

Students in reflection will be taken from morning line up by the pastoral team and will complete work with a pastoral member of staff related to the school values of work hard, be kind and take responsibility.

Mobile Phones/headphones

We operate a 'Not Seen, Not heard' policy. If a student's phone/airpods/headphones are seen or heard during the school day it will be confiscated. For the first confiscation in a half term the student is given the phone back at the end of the school day. Further confiscations in the same half term will result in parents/carers having to collect the phone/airpods/headphones.

Student confiscations reset each half term.

Home – School Agreement
Relationships and Behaviour Policy
September 2024

The use of mobile phones during the school day is a serious safeguarding risk. We request that parents/carers do not contact students on their mobile phones during the school day.

Home – School Agreement
Relationships and Behaviour Policy
September 2024

Respite

When a student's behaviour does not improve we reserve the right to source a period of respite at another school.

This may be due to a regular failure to meet school expectations and uphold our values, a serious one off situation, or to facilitate gradual reintegration to a school setting after a suspension.

This placement is not a precursor for a student leaving the school but gives a student the opportunity to reset, reflect and return positively to our setting.

Offsite direction

The school may arrange for an offsite direction if previous support as detailed on the Tiers of Intervention

- A single incident is of a significant severity to warrant a student being educated elsewhere
- There are regular and deliberate breaches of the school behaviour policy and value system
- A student is receiving repeated suspensions
- A respite period was unsuccessful

An offsite direction is a placement at another educational setting for a fixed period of time, usually 6 weeks or a half term. At the end of this period the intention is for the student to return to The Coleshill School following a successful period of reflection whilst at the other setting. If unsuccessful, this could lead to a managed move being initiated or more serious further action, dependant on the contextual situation.

How will this benefit students?

An offsite direction gives students an opportunity to reflect on their time at The Coleshill School and the associated behaviours. In some cases, an offsite direction can act as a 'circuit breaker' where negative behaviours are continuing despite ongoing, thorough support from school staff. Whilst placed at another school, students have the opportunity to engage with different staff, access learning in another provision and develop positive experiences to enable a successful return to The Coleshill School at the conclusion of the offsite direction.

Praise and Rewards

The Coleshill School has a well established and successful rewards policy known as SPIRIT (Self-Management, Perseverance, Innovation, Reflection, Independence, Team-work). Students are awarded SPIRIT points both in and out of lessons when they demonstrate the SPIRIT values. Additionally, students can receive SPIRIT points for demonstrating the school values of Work Hard, Be Kind, Take Responsibility.

Throughout the school year we have focus weeks on either the school values or an aspect of SPIRIT to encourage students to engage positively with their learning to earn more SPIRIT points.

Where students receive enough SPIRIT points to reach the thresholds identified in the image below, they will be awarded badges to wear on their uniform. Students earning and wearing their badges receive additional privileges within school.

Student rewards, praise and recognition occurs every week during assemblies, morning line ups and throughout the school day where appropriate. There are also half termly rewards assemblies where students are awarded the badges they have achieved.

We also endeavour to recognise the achievements of students outside of the SPIRIT model and regularly praise and acknowledge the extra-curricular participation, both in and out of school, during weekly assemblies.
