Art and Design (Fine Art) This option covers a broad and developing area of study that includes painting, drawing, ceramics, sculpture, installation, performance and conceptual art and aspects of print-making, photography and film.

Study Art and Design and develop:

intellectual, imaginative, creative and intuitive capabilities.

investigative, analytical, experimental, practical, technical and expressive skills, aesthetic understanding and critical judgement independence of mind in developing, refining and communicating their own ideas, their own intentions and their own personal outcomes

the experience of working with a broad range of media knowledge and understanding of art, craft, design and media and technologies in contemporary and past societies and cultures

Assessment Method:

Unit 1 - 60% Coursework

The Personal Investigation consists of two integrated constituent parts: 1. a major in-depth critical, practical and theoretical investigative project/portfolio and outcome/s based on themes and subject matter that have personal significance; 2. an extended written element of 1000 words minimum, which may contain images and texts and must clearly relate to practical and theoretical work using an appropriate working vocabulary and specialist terminology

Unit 2- 40% Practical Examination

This component is based on preparatory study that leads to a 15 hour period of sustained focus in which you will produce a response to a chosen visual or written stimuli.

What our students say:

“ Art is my favourite subject because I have a choice in the themes I look at and how I choose to develop them. I want to be an Architect and studying Art A level is helping me to get to this goal.”

“Mrs Bradshaw helped me put together my portfolio for University and I got accepted to all the courses I applied to.”

This course is ideally suited to...

...students who have a passion and a keen interest in art and art and design. Studying Art and Design provides entry to an unprecedented range of specialisms, skills – both traditional and digital – and careers.
