

French A-Level

Awarding Body: AQA

Course Length: 2 years

Entry Requirements: 36 – 48 Points
Grade 5 in French desirable

This course will cover:

Students study technological and social change in French society looking at diversity and the benefits it brings. They will study highlights of French-speaking artistic culture, including francophone music and cinema, and learn about political engagement and who wields political power in the French-speaking world.

Students also explore the influence of the past on present-day French-speaking communities. Throughout their studies, they will learn the language in the context of French-speaking countries and the issues and influences which have shaped them. Students will study texts and film and have the opportunity to carry out independent research on an area of their choice.

What our students say:

“French A level is a very challenging subject however from this course I have developed a passion to learn more and understand France as a Society. Some of the topics that you will learn include society, family, music and voluntary work. Another positive is due to our small class size we get more one to one support.”

Assessment Method:

Assessment tasks will be varied and cover listening, speaking, reading and writing skills.

This course is ideally suited to...

...students who wish to travel or to pursue a career in business. This A-Level provides a solid foundation for studying French at degree level. Many students choose to do a combined honours languages degree with other subjects like law, business, history and even engineering. Gaining a deeper knowledge of a language will give you a strong competitive edge in an ever competitive globalised employment market.
